

Now I am free!

Long time in my life, I felt on the run.
Achieve as much as I can instead of having fun.
Searching, trying to be enough, to be a good me.
By letting go inner and outer claims – I set me free.

I opened my mind – see what's all there behind
I question the world as it seems to be.
Cause the question remains – what's suits to me
many mindsets around – do not nourish my ground.

But I want to feel free, being just me!
Searching came to an end
by being my best friend.
Free, being just me.
Searching came to an end
by being my best friend.

Farewell limits in my head!
I choose boundlessness instead.
I don't live for a CV – I live for me.
And for those who I love and for the greatness up above.

I want to feel free, being just me!
Searching came to an end
by being my best friend.
Free, being just me
Searching came to an end
By being my best friend.

All that I am, is more than enough.
Don't have to be more or more being tough.
I rise every day, but in my own way.
When I'm a free me, I can send love and peace to thee.

Now I am free, being just me!
Searching came to an end
now being my own best friend.
Free, being just me!
Searching came to an end
Now being my best friend.

My day is mine.
I bring my life to shine.
It's all up to me.
I decide to be free.
