

Flow & Fly

Go! Let go all the crippling borders
Confidence can only made rules
Go! Take your heart, your faith and your longings
Bethink the world is mad and cruel.

Listen!
Try it, feel it, risk it, and dare the jump
Come and take my Hand!

Flow and Fly away!
Flow and Fly away!

You're borne by god, believe in Angels
It's not the time for fairytales
You already carry everything inside you
But the World is full of storm and hail.

Listen!
Try it, feel it, risk it, and dare the jump
Come and take my Hand!

Flow and Fly away!
Flow and Fly away!

Do I just have to trust, to see the angels?
Yeah just believe!
I think I understand what life could
Just feel free!
I choose the flow and let it go!
Show me how to spread my wings
I Show show you, how to spread your wings!

Listen!
Try it, feel it, risk it And dare the jump
Come and take my Hand

Flow and Fly away!
Flow and Fly away!
